Happy Father's Day!

I hope this is a special day of rest and relaxation for all the fathers of St. Michael the Archangel Parish. You have a serious and awesome job! May God bless you in all your efforts to provide for your family. The demands we place on fathers are great. You have to provide financially, emotionally, and spiritually for your family. It's good that we have this day to say Thank You! We are grateful for all that you have sacrificed in raising your family.

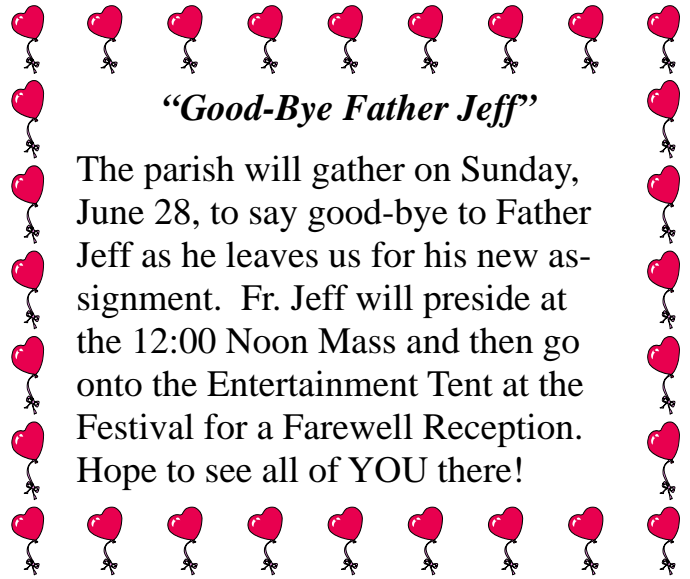

In today's Gospel we hear about the disciples' adventure in the boat with Jesus. They are in the boat and a "violent squall came up." Of course they are terrified, and amazed that Jesus is able to sleep with the boat rolling and the waves crashing. After Jesus is awakened and calms the storm, one of his questions to them is "do you not yet have faith?"

Fathers have an important job of planting the seeds of faith in their children. The examples of faith shown by fathers, and the witness of growing one's faith through attending church, praying at home, offering of time and talent and treasure where needed, are very important in the growth of a child. Our earthly fathers are the first to teach us lessons about God the Father. They help prepare us for our own response when we are asked, "do you not yet have faith?"

As you honor your father today, be especially mindful of how he shared his faith with you.

And after you spend this weekend relaxing, I hope you'll spend next weekend at the parish festival! Come out to enjoy and relax! Come out to work a shift or two! Come out and ride the rides with your children! Come out to enjoy a delicious meal! The Parish Festival Committee hopes that all our parish families will come to the festival, June 26, 27, & 28.

Peace,
Aggie

"Good-Bye Father Jeff"

The parish will gather on Sunday, June 28, to say good-bye to Father Jeff as he leaves us for his new assignment. Fr. Jeff will preside at the 12:00 Noon Mass and then go onto the Entertainment Tent at the Festival for a Farewell Reception. Hope to see all of YOU there!

Spiritual Adoption 4th Month, June 25-July 25

Thank you my spiritual parents who pray for my young life to be saved from abortion. Elizabeth felt John the Baptist move in her womb when she was visited by her cousin Mary. My mother feels me move now. I wake up and go to sleep and I can even dream. I look like you, a brother or sister of Jesus Christ. I have eyelashes and fingernails and my taste buds are working and I can hear. I am well-formed internally and externally. All I need now is time to gain weight and grow.

It's Not Too Late To Volunteer:
